	to the structure that goes over an opening and supports the weight of bridge, wall or roof above it.
arcl A pe	ner rson who shoots with a bow and arrows.
	ow n, straight stick with a sharp point at one end and feathers at the r that is shot from a bow.
bai l	l ey courtyard inside the outer wall of a castle.
A wa	tlements Ill around the top of a castle with square spaces in it that the people e castle can shoot through.
	row le in the ground that has been dug by an animal such as a rabbit, ı to live in.
	tle ge, strong building that was built in the past by an important person otect the people inside from attack.
	wbridge dge that can be raised or lowered to protect a castle from attack.
A lar	ress ge, strong building or group of buildings that is designed to keep the le inside safe by protecting them from enemies.
kee The s	p strong, central tower of a castle.

lord A nobleman who he	as a lot of power over the area close to his home.
medieval Relating to the Mide	dle Ages.
•	that is dug around a castle, fort or town and usually make it more difficult for enemies to attack.
motte A small hill in the m	iddle of a castle on which a fort or keep is built.
passage A covered path that with rooms on one	t connects places, or a long, narrow part of a building or both sides.
	nangs above the entrance to a castle and can be hose inside from enemies.
	arth or a large wall with a walkway built around it, wn, city or castle it from invaders.
Saxon Relating to people w fifth and sixth centu	who left Germany to come and live in Britain in the iries.
tower A tall narrow buildi such as a church or	ng that either stands alone or forms part of a building a castle.
tunnel A long passage tha	t is made underground.

